

Water is the Cornerstone of Every Community...

NACWA is the Power Behind It

NACWA ensures your utility is supported and heard. Membership delivers a clear return on investment by connecting you to a strong national network, amplifying your influence in shaping critical policy and strengthening your ability to serve your customers and protect the environment.

Influence Federal Policy That Impacts Your Utility's Bottom Line

NACWA ensures your utility's unique perspective is part of a unified voice shaping decisions in Washington, DC.

- Influence federal legislation that governs funding, affordability, permitting and environmental standards.
- Shape EPA regulatory actions before they become costly mandates.
- Secure billions in federal investment for infrastructure programs your utility and customers rely on.

A National Peer Network with Real-Time Solutions

Membership connects you and your staff with clean water professionals nationwide.

- A 24/7 virtual platform to exchange ideas with clean water executives, engineers and managers.
- In-person and virtual events that deliver information, innovation, and best practices as well as foster vital peer connections.
- Exclusive tools, resources and case studies to support planning, budgeting and respond to emerging issues.

Every Utility Belongs Here — Join NACWA Today!

Get more information at nacwa.org/join. Contact membership@nacwa.org with any questions.

Your customers depend on you. Your utility can depend on us. Together, we protect the future of clean water.

Regulatory & Legislative Actions, Simplified for You

NACWA distills the decisions coming from policymakers and regulators into clear, actionable guidance allowing utilities to make informed decisions with confidence.

- Timely updates and advocacy alerts that translate complex policy into practical guidance.
- Strategic advocacy and comment letters that protect utility interests.
- Direct access to knowledgeable NACWA staff to help navigate federal requirements and emerging issues.

Communications Tools That Build Trust and Shape the Narrative

NACWA provides the tools and guidance to build trust and shift the narrative around clean water in your community.

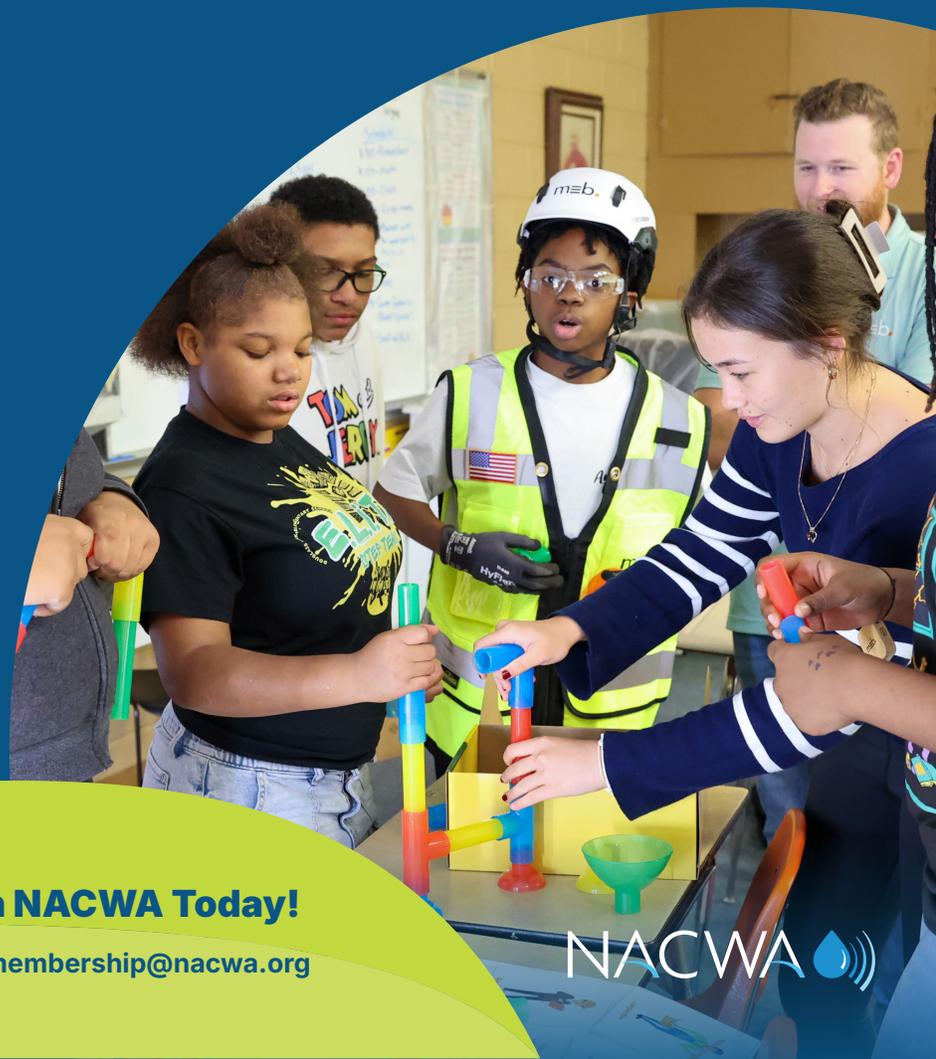

Membership provides:

- Guidance for communicating with ratepayers, media and community leaders.
- Ready-to-use resources to explain regulatory, cost and infrastructure drivers.
- Support to counter misinformation and elevate the value of clean water services as essential to public health, the environment and local economies.

Legal Advocacy Protecting Utility Interests

NACWA advocates on legal issues nationwide to protect the rights of its members and ensure the voice of the clean water community is heard by the courts and Congress.

- Direct engagement in litigation impacting clean water utilities
- Expert legal analysis helping members navigate complex regulations and policies
- Strategic Congressional outreach on critical legislative initiatives

Every Utility Belongs Here — Join NACWA Today!

Get more information at nacwa.org/join. Contact membership@nacwa.org with any questions.

NACWA